Maritime Cyprus

13 – 16 September 2015 – Limassol – Cyprus

The “Maritime Cyprus” Conference has been established as a biennial event in Cyprus and it is organised by the Ministry of Communications and Works and the Department of Merchant Shipping in cooperation with the Cyprus Shipping Chamber and the Cyprus Union of Shipowners. The Maritime Cyprus Conference has grown into one of the world’s most significant shipping conferences. Its status now gives it a prominent position in the calendar of many shipping executives of the industry, including, owners, managers, and delegates from other shipping organisations.

The main theme of the “Maritime Cyprus 2015” Conference, which is the 14th, since it was first established in 1989, is Shipping: “Game Change”. As the theme suggests, the Conference will be focused on the crucial matters concerning the international shipping industry. The issues that will be discussed include policy and regulatory matters and the forthcoming changes in the international shipping scenery, economic matters, environmental matters and their interaction with technology, geopolitical and energy developments and forecasting for the recovery of the economy and for the freight markets.

The conference will be officially opened by H.E. the President of the Republic of Cyprus Mr. Nicos Anastasiades. Distinguished guests such as, the Secretary-General of the International Maritime Organization, the Commissioner in charge of Transport of the European Commission and other personalities of the International Shipping scene will address the conference.

Attracting the elite of global shipping the conference is expected to be attended by more than 1,000 people from Cyprus and abroad.
